

POSITION: Linerider
DEPARTMENT: Western Pipeline Operations
LOCATION: Long Beach, CA

Responsibilities

Plains All American is seeking a Linerider to assist with the protection of pipelines from external damage, read and interpret computer generated “one-call” notices, maps, and drawings. The Linerider position operates pipeline locators and marks location of pipelines, works with company and contractors to insure pipeline is not damaged during construction around pipeline and understands operation of various types of equipment and machinery.

Knowledge, Skills, Education and Experience:

Must have a high school diploma or equivalent with strong communication, interpersonal skills and the ability to perform basic math. Must be able to read and comprehend technical operational manuals and drawings.

Certifications and Training:

Must be able to successfully complete company Haz-Mat training and required D.O.T. operator qualification tasks and mandatory safety training.
Must have a valid driver's license

Special Equipment and Tools Used Requiring Application Knowledge:

Understand one-call notices. Must be able to read/use pipeline maps and drawings to locate pipelines. Use personal computers to update and documents various records/reports. Use manual spotting bars and/or electronic line locators to locate pipeline

Physical Demands:

Occasionally lifts or carries moderately heavy equipment or parts and positions them during maintenance activities. Uses manual spotting bar to locate pipelines. Must be able to work in confined spaces. Physical requirement may include stooping, kneeling, bending, and walking distances in all types of terrain.

Qualified candidates may respond by email: gagooch@paalp.com or fax to 562-728-2307

please reference: Linerider

Equal Opportunity Employer